NUMB. 327

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8. 1742.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland, and another from Flanders.

Lisbon, Sept. 4.

IS Majesty is reported to be still in the same Situation, and it has even been given out that he is better, yet this News is far from obtaining Credit; because his Majesty no longer appears in Publick, nor are but his own immediate Servants permitted to enter his Presence. Another suspicious Circumstance is, that his Majesty has lately founded 17 new Benefices, each of 600 Mill Reis yearly Value, which are annexed to the Patriarchal Church, and it is said, that very soon the Number of the Canons of that Church will likewise be enlarged. Three Algerine Rovers have had the Insolence to cruise under the Guns of the Fort of St. John and the Tower of Bugia, whereby not only all our Commerce is disturbed, but we are even distressed in point of Provisions; for since their taking several Fishing-boats, the Fishermen insist upon having Convoys before they venture out.

Moscou, Sept. 22. As the Spaniards are beginning to march back into the Bolognese, Veldt-Marshal Count Traus thought proper to halt at Buon Porto, to which Prince's Excellency has recalled several Regiments which were already march'd into the Duchy of Modena. His Sardinian Majesty has likewise countermanded two Regiments of Foot and one of Dragoons, which were in full March for Piedmont. We make no Question that when the Army of the Allies is again assembled, it will be more double that of Spain; we do not apprehend, however, that the War will be renew'd in earnest; the rather because it is certain that his Holiness has written directly to the Spanish General, to inform him, that he expects he should quarter his Troops in the March of Ancona, according to the Regulations transmitted to him, for that he could no longer be a tame Spectator of the Miseries of his Subjects, and that he had written on this Head to the Court of Madrid, whence he hoped to receive a favourable Answer, in which if he was deceived, he should be obliged to take other Measures. Since this M. de Buffly, who commands the Pope's Gallican, has receiv'd Orders to acquaint the Spanish General, that he is ready to transport his Forces into France, or into Spain, if he desires it; but that the Pope is determined, they shall continue no longer in his Dominions than till the Return of the Express from Madrid.

From the French Camp at Welschoffen, Sept. 22. Marshal Maillebois being informed that the Austrians had possessed themselves of all the Passes into Bohemia, and that Prince Charles of Lorraine was marching with his Army from Pilsen, to oppose our Passage, at the same time that Count Kevenhuller encamp'd with his Forces at the Distance of about two Leagues on the right; his Excellency thereupon made all the necessary Dispositions for attacking the nearest Passes, and forcing the Austrian Guards.

When he perceived that the Enemy entered into his Design, and had taken their Measures accordingly, his Excellency gave Directions to Count Saxe and the Duke de Harcourt to march towards Plan, which they did accordingly; and having enter'd the Plain of the same Name, summoned the Place, which immediately surrendered, and left them entirely Masters of the Plain, in which the Duke de Harcourt posted a Body of Troops under his Command, while the Count de Saxe with 10000 Men encamped on the Plain. All the Divisions of our Army have begun their March that Way, so we take it for granted, that by the 25th of this Month the whole Army will be assembled in Bohemia.

From the Austrian Camp at Haid in Bohemia, Sept. 23.

We have just now received Advice, that the French have surprized the Town of Plan, and made the Garrison prisoners of War. We have likewise another Piece of News, which is, that they have likewise surprized a small Body of Dragoons commanded by Col. Lobkowitz, which were encamped in that Neighbourhood. This will certainly open a Passage to all Marshal Maillebois's Army, so that a Battle must quickly follow, for which our Troops are extremely eager. Different Accounts having been published as to the Strength of this Army, it may not be amiss to observe, that since our Junction with Veldt-Marshal Kevenhuller we make our 50,000 Men. According to the last Letters we received from Prague, the Enemy must have suffered extremely since our Departure. Several Bodies of Horse having attempted to make their Escape, have been pursued by our Hussars, who have killed many, and made some Prisoners.

Ratisbon, Sept. 28. For some Days past we have had no News from either of the Armies in Bohemia; the last Intelligence we had was, that Marshal Maillebois was in full March for Moring, and that a Detachment of the Garrison of Egra had surprized Count Lobkowitz with 200 Dragoons near the Town of Plan. When the Marshal is arrived in his Camp at Moring, he will be then but six Leagues from Prince Charles. Field Marshal Seckendorff has just pass'd the Danube at Kilheim, and is marching towards Munich, whither Baron Berenclau is retir'd with the Forces under his Command. It is said that the Imperial General intends to form the Siege of that City, but if we have had a fair Account of the Situation of things there, this will be an impracticable Undertaking, considering the Strength of the new Fortifications, and that the Austrians have in it a Body of Troops very little inferior in Force to those which are said to be employ'd in forming the Siege.

Frankfort, Oct. 2. The Relation given by the Prince de Deux-Pont amounts to this, That the Enemy having left General Festitz with a Body of between 7 and 8000 Men, to hinder the Communication between Prague and the adjacent Country, it was resolv'd on the 20th of last Month to attack them in all their Posts; with this View Marshal Broglie march'd with 5 Brigades of Foot, 40 Companies of Grenadiers, and 2000 Horse and Hussars, by the Hospital Gate, and directed his March to the Village of Libben where some Infantry were incamp'd, who immediately abandon'd that Post. The rest of the Day was spent in slight Skirmishes of no great Consequence. Towards Evening Marshal Broglie detach'd four Companies of Grenadiers, 100 Carabiniers, as many Dragoons, and 50 Hussars, under the Command of Mr. de la Valette, to escort the Prince de Deux-Pont, the Marquis de Beauveau, and the Duke of Brissac. This Detachment march'd all Night, and arriving on the Bank of the Elbe, they pass'd that River about a League from Melrick, which they were inform'd was occupied by a Detachment of Hussars. It was resolv'd to carry these off, to which End 50 Dragoons and as many Hussars were detach'd thither, with Orders to pass round the Town, and to post themselves before the Gate opposite to that which was to be attack'd by the rest of the Detachment; but before this could be performed, the Detachment were too near the Town to avoid being discovered. Upon this the Marquis de Beauveau resolv'd to attack the Place immediately, in order to favour the Escape of the Prince de Deux-Pont. But that Prince took this Opportunity to ride full Gallop to the Place, attended by the Prince de Stolberg, Mr. Gourovre, the Count Schmettau, the Chevaliers Jolies, Beauveau, and Barlenow, and having forced the Guard, pass'd thro' the Place and seiz'd on the opposite Gate, which they kept till the Detachment came up and made Prisoners the Hussars in the Town, consisting of 33 Men and an Officer.

Extract of a private Letter from Frankfort, Oct. 3.
There arrived this Evening two Couriers from the Army, one on the Heels of the other; the first charged with Dispatches for the Imperial Court, and the latter with Letters for Mr. Blondell the French Minister; the Contents of which have not hitherto been made publick. This Silence however is thought to favour a Report which prevails here, That an Action has happen'd, to the Disadvantage of the Imperialists; but as to the Circumstances, we can say nothing.

Hague, Oct. 9. Letters by the Way of Bassora say, that Kouli Kan has been beaten by the Lesgis, and that this has had such Consequences, that 'tis thought he will conclude as soon as possible a Peace with the Porte. Since the Arrival of Lord Carteret here, the Earl of Stair has had a Conference with Count Sinsheim, his Imperial Majesty's Minister here; which has occasioned much Speculation.

L O N D O N .

By private Letters from Paris we learn, that two Marriages are talkt of at the French Court, the first between the Dauphin and the Daughter of his Imperial Majesty, and the other between the Prince of Piedmont and the eldest of the Daughters of France.

The Duke de Rochefoucaud set out from Paris on the 1st Inst. N.S. but no body knows certainly whether he is gone; the general Opinion however is, that he is employ'd to execute a Commission of the last Importance at Turin.

The Piedmontese Troops having enter'd Savoy in two Places, the Spaniards have begun to retire, and Orders have been given at Toulon to prepare for the Reception of the Infante Don Philip, who is to pass the Winter there. So that, as we prophecy'd, his Reign in Savoy is not like to be long.

Mr. Thompson the British Minister at Paris has intimated to some of his Friends, that it would not be long before he should be recalled; and it is thought that Mr. Gundell, who is charg'd with the Affairs of the Queen of Hungary, would quit that Court at the same time.

His Prussian Majesty has caus'd a considerable Body of Forces to advance to the Frontiers of Moravia, in order to assist the Queen of Hungary in Bohemia if there should be Occasion.

It is said the Imperial Minister at the Hague has had Orders to explain the Propositions contain'd in his last Decree, in order to render them more agreeable to the Allies of the Court of Vienna.

Mr. Pequet, who was Clerk in the Office of Foreign Affairs under Mons. Chauvelin, and who on his Disgrace was confin'd in the Castle of Vincennes, where he has remain'd two Years, has been discharg'd lately by Command of his most Christian Majesty, and his Pension of 6000 Livres per annum continued to him; which occasions much Speculation.

Comodore Mathews has, we hear, sent Notice to the Chamber of Commerce at Marseilles, That he will make Prize of all Ships he shall meet with going into or coming from any of the Ports of Spain laden with Oil, Wine, Provisions, Arms, &c.

Capt. Nicholson, of the Ruby, arrived at Lancaster from Antigua, left that Island the 5th of August, and brings Advice, That the Pearl Man of War, with two Store ships from Barbados for Jamaica, put into Antigua the 29th of July; they had the Day before met with a violent Hurricane, in which the Pearl lost her Masts, and the Store ship theirs, except each a Foremast; a Provision Ship

Ship

Ship that was with them lost Company in the Storm, and was not arriv'd when the Ruby came away. The Ships at Antigua receiv'd no Damage. But at St. Christopher's, a Vessel belonging to Bristol, and another belonging to Glasgow, were put ashore; two other Vessels rode out the Storm, and all the other Ships put out to Sea.

Capt. Lyon, in the Braganza, from Lisbon last from Plymouth, who arrived off of Dover on Wednesday last, saw a Spanish Privateer take a Prize off of Beachy in Sussex.

On Thursday last were entered at the Custom-house, from Petersburgh, 4,330 Pounds of Raw Silk, being the first that has been brought from thence since the Commencement of the Act for settling a Trade with Persia through Russia.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Granard arrived at his House in St. James's-street from Ireland.

Last Night the Right Hon. the Lord Carteret arrived at his House in Arlington-street St. James's from Holland.

'Tis said that a Messenger was Yesterday dispatch'd to Gravesend, to countermand the Embarkation of his Majesty's Saddle-horses for Flanders. And that Orders are likewise given for re-landing all the King's Baggage, his Majesty's Journey to Flanders being laid aside for this Season.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VIRUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a seminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most invertebrate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so eas'y and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experience'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sicknes or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, eas'y, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, serophilous, and even leprous Eruptions or Foulness of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medidine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
